

Buying a home brings with it many decisions – important decisions.

There are many considerations when you are thinking of purchasing a home. You'll need to decide on the house features, the neighbourhood, the financing and many other details for the home itself but don't forget to consider how you will insure that home.

Let us help you with that detail. We are only a phone call away for responsible homeowners and credit union members. We offer a no obligation home insurance quote in minutes.

Don't forget to ask about the discounts* that you may be eligible if:

- you are claims free
- you have a centrally monitored alarm system
- you are a mature age policyholder
- your home is new
